Launched in 2015, the local dynamic and the genuine commitment of Luxembourg's cultural institutions, artists and collectors have confirmed Luxembourg Art Week's position as a unique meeting point for contemporary art in the region.

To celebrate its fifth anniversary, Luxembourg Art Week will expand its exhibition space by more than 1,000 sqm and feature more than 60 contemporary art galleries, cultural institutions and artists' collectives in three sections. The Main Section presents established international and regional contemporary art galleries, while Take Off, the prospective section, showcases young emerging galleries and artists' collectives to a wider audience. First Call, the new section at Luxembourg Art Week, allows a selection of first-time international exhibitors to discover the Luxembourgish market.

As usual, Luxembourg Art Week will also present a varied programme of high-quality events, including a 'carte blanche' exhibition project by Casino Luxembourg ? Forum d'art contemporain, conferences, children's workshops, film screenings and performances as well as the annual Salon of Luxembourg's artist union Cercle Artistique de Luxembourg (CAL), inviting visitors to connect with the art of today in new and more attractive ways.
